So far just Ken from Kirkpatrick's office contacted us on this, as it's looking like the spill is going to possibly impact the Navajo Nation in the NM/AZ four corners area – basically the area in NM, but looks like AZ folks may start to get interested.....Kelly mentioned Jared talked to the President of the Navajo Nation.....

Region 8 is the lead right now, as the release happened at the Gold King Mine in CO, but will touch NM, so Region 6 is also involved. Looking like our involvement is in AZ, more specifically the Navajo Nation areas that span AZ and NM.

These areas especially our work with the Navajo Nation is totally new to me.....

Thanks!

Hi Ken,

Here's what we have so far from R8, from what I was told, our R9 folks are working up info as it relates to the Navajo.....will pass on once I get it.....

Thanks!

What can you tell about the spill and what is the EPA doing to notify the down streamers.
